Interview Guide 1: Progress Tracking and Motivation

Duration: 15 minutes Focus: Personal progress, motivation, and recordkeeping

1. Screening (1 minute)

- What hobbies or recreational activities have you participated in recently?
- When was the last time you participated in one of those activities?

2. Last-Time Story (4 minutes)

- Walk me through the last time you participated in that activity.
- How did you know whether you had improved or made progress?
- Did you record or document anything afterward? Walk me through what you did.

Follow-up: Can you show or describe where you kept that information?

If we were able to provide a way to track recreational activities that would be helpful for you, how would that look like?

3. Alternatives (3 minutes)

- What methods or tools have you used to keep track of your activities or achievements?
- What did you use before your current method?
- What difficulties, if any, have you encountered with those methods?

4. Switching Story (4 minutes)

- Think about the last time you changed how you tracked your progress. What led to that change?
- What made you choose the new method?
- Was there anything that almost stopped you from switching?
- What would cause you to stop using your current method?

5. Money and Time (2 minutes)

- How much time did you spend documenting or reviewing your progress the last time you did it?
- Have you paid for any tools, subscriptions, or services related to tracking your activities? What did you spend?

6. Closing (1 minute)

- Is there anything else about your experience that we haven't discussed?
- Do you know anyone else who keeps track of their hobbies or personal achievements and might be willing to share their experience?
